Approval of Minutes

1. Action: The Minutes of 6 October 1953 (IAC-M-124) were approved.

Capabilities and Probable Courses of Action of the ROK with Respect to an Armistice

2. Action: Approved as amended.

First Annual Progress
Report of the SEC
(IAC-D-74)

3. Action: Noted, and agreed to delete the last two sentences of paragraph V.A. (The Secretary will disseminate a revised page 4).

4. Discussion: General Porter questioned that it would in every instance be desirable to submit the scientific and technical contributions to national intelligence to the SEC prior to submission to ONE. He feared that this might restrict the agencies' access to ONE. It was pointed out that the SEC's intended objective was to improve the mechanism for implementing the direction (in paragraph 2c of DCID-3/4) that the SEC "integrate scientific and technical intelligence, as and when required, for the production of national intelligence," and synthesize departmental intelligence. It was the sense of the meeting that it was desirable to maintain flexibility in the developing procedures of the SEC.

Consideration of Release of Intelligence Statements
on Atomic Activities
(IAC-D-45/51)
